OUR HISTORY

The Jobie-to-Bee program started in 1988 in Washington State, USA as a way to encourage young girls to be excited about Job's Daughters while waiting to turn 10 years old. The program has been buzzing ever since!

Fun Fact:

Job's Daughters celebrated their 100th Anniversary in October 2020 and at the time, there were over 900 Jobies-to-Bee world wide!

WHO IS A JOBIE-TO-BEE

She is a young girl (usually between 7-9) who would like to make new friends and participate in new experiences while learning the basics of Job's Daughters. She can build self-confidence, be of service to others, enjoy fun activities, travel, and participate in local, state, and international events.

WHAT DO BEE'S DO?

They have fun of course! A Jobie-to-Bee will get to know the other Bees who are looking forward to joining Job's Daughters. They will also meet the Daughters of the Bethel who will one day become their sisters.

A group of Bees associated with a Bethel is called a Beehive. A Beehive will often hold their activities in conjunction with the Bethel and under the supervision of a Bethel Beekeeper (a super awesome and fun lady). The idea of a Beehive is to foster the bonds of friendship and sisterhood between the Bees and the Daughters of the Bethel.

A Jobie-to-Bee is typically invited to many of the Bethel activities, as well as various special ceremonies and events. Parents are invited and highly encouraged to attend also.

When the Jobie-to-Bee finally reaches the age of 10 and is old enough to join a Bethel, she will already know most of the members and will feel comfortable with attending the meetings, events and activities.

ABOUT JOB'S DAUGHTERS

Job's Daughters is located in 5 countries (United States, Canada, Australia, the Philippines, and Brazil) with 11,000 members worldwide. In the course of our 100 year history, over 1 million girls have been served.

Job's Daughters is where shy girls turn into confident young women. Our members grow alongside their peers and find their voice in a safe and supportive environment. The girls lead themselves and plan their own activities, learning teamwork and problem solving along the way.

Job's Daughters is for girls who grow up to be confident young women, who respect tradition, while shaping the future. Our members learn invaluable skills that will increase their confidence and prepare them to lead. We teach girls to use their voice.
